THE PROPOSITION CARRIED IN THE SENATE, 39 TO 26.

senators Disagree as to the Cost of the ships. Their Estimates Ranging From $15,000,000 to $17,500,000 Each of Discussion Over Disarmament.

WASHINGTON, May 23.-Two battleships, each of 26,000 tons, will be added to the American pavy as a result of the Senate a action to-day on the naval appro-The House already authorized two first class ships of war and I the Senate's action to-day goes far toward | U establishing as a permanent policy the two battleships a year programme. is the third year in succession that Congress has voted such an increase to the Senate by a vote of 39 to 26. The naval appropriation bill carries about $134,000,-

The cost of the proposed battleships which will outclass the original Dreadnought type, is a subject over which memthe Senate disagree. Senator was chairman of the Senate Committee in con-Yaval Affairs, fixed the cost of one of these modern fighting machines at $18,000 -

Both of these estimates were challenged to-day by Senator Perkins, chairman of to-day by Senator Perkins, chairman of the Naval Affairs Committee, who said Senator Lorimer has not appeared at Senator Lorimer has not appeared at Navy and developed at the hearings of the House Naval Anairs Control of the Senator say that Granting, however, that the battleships at this time.

Close friends of the Senator say that launched the House Naval Affairs Committee. mated. Senator Perkins contended that it would be a wise policy to authorize their construction. He maintained that 85 per cent of this amount would be paid the president. He was in no position, ships came up on an amendment by Senator Burton of Ohio, who moved that only one instead of two be authorized this started for Washington to confe year. On the roll call the amendment was lost, the vote being as follows:

Ayes Republicans - Bristow, Burton, Clapp, Crawford, Cummins, Dixon, Doi-Hale, La Follette and Page-10 Democrats-Bacon, Bailey, Chamberlain, Clay, Fletcher, Frazier, Gore, Hughes, chneton. Newlands, Overman, Purcell, Shively, Simmons and Stone-18.

Noes: Republicans Beveridge, Bourne, Bradley, Brandegee, Brown, Burkett, Burnham, Burrows, Carter, Clark of Wyoming, Crane, Cullom, Curtis, Depew, Dick, Du-Pont, Elkins, Flint, Frye, Gallinger, Gamble aggenheim, Heyburn, Jones, Kean, Lodge, Nixon, Oliver, Perkins, Piles, Smith of Michigan, Smoot, Stephenson, Sutherland, Warner and Wetmore-36. Democratsof Arkansas, McEnery and Taylor Total, 39.

Practically the entire day was taken up in in the Senate in debating the Administration's two battleship programme. Senator Lodge argued that the maintenance of a strong navy is the greatest guarantee of peace. He said he agreed with Senator Hale in advocating international disarmament, but he declared that nothing could be gained by one nation offering itself as a possible victim to others. The American Government, he contended, would not exercise its present influence but for its strong navy

With the great nations of the world rivaling each other in their efforts to build the biggest navy, from what quarter does the Senator look for the disarmament to which he alludes?" asked Senator Dolliver.

I did not mean to suggest immediate disarmament," replied Senator Lodge. The movement in that direction is becoming stronger all the while. An en-lightened public opinion will put a stop to heavy to action for ingressed arms to heavy taxation for increased arma-

"But is not the United States better qualified by reason of location to make Seven More Men Indicted by District of a practical demonstration in favor of dis-any other country, which action would more and this city. Indictments were only increase the chances for war. This country is in a position to say to the nations of the world: We will disarm if William Fox and E. M. Browning of Balti-

Senator Dolliver expressed the opinion

Senator Clapp in opposing two battledeprecated speculation as to the possibility of war with a foreign country. We may some day bully Japan into war, we may bully some weaker nation into war," said the Senator. "It is montalk about war between the United States and some foreign country. the next breath plead for an increase in the demand for more battleships. "The peace or the demand for eulogizing the lowers of the Hague conference would be to above our naval programme. he to abate our naval programme. Every new cartleship is an invitation to war, neigectation of war." Senator Depew treated the Senate to a * executive and diplomatic secrets. aid that the war with Spain could Teacher McKinley was against that war for the Third district of New York, Fred-ecould not resist the tide of popular erick L. Marshall of New York

To be United States Attorney for the that that Government was bandon both Cuba and the Spain would not officially roposal for fear of its rejection. is desire on the part of Spain, was not strong enough to resist how the United States ssed a war with England at the resident Cleveland's Venezuela senator Depew said:

friend of mine, who was ate friend of Lord Salisbury, a conversation he had with Prime Minister of England. States was determined to have England and he believed the trived to have it out. He had no navy to speak of

TWO 26,000 TON BATTLESHIPS at a time when we were absolutely un-prepared for it."

An amendment was adopted to-day eliminating from the list of securities that may be accepted as surety from navy contractors county and municipal bonds."

This leaves only Government and State bonds available for such uses. Just before the close of the debate to-day Senator La Follette submitted figures way of comparison between the cos-constructing the Connecticut, which was built in a Government navy yard, and the cost of constructing the Louisiana. which was built in a private shipyard. His figures showed that it cost 39,856 more to build the Connecticut than to build her sister ship the Louisiana.

Senator Owen of Oktahoma offered an her sister ship the Louisiana. Senator Owen of Oklahoma offered an has amendment appropriating one-tenth of and i per cent. of all money appropriated under the bill for promoting international His amendment went out on a LORIMER TO ANSWER CHARGES. The proposition was carried in the is Preparing a Statement to He Made in the Senate Chamber.

WASHINGTON, May 23. - Senator William Lorimer, who arrived in Washington yesterday, is expected to make a speech in the Senate to-morrow or Wednesday night in which he will probably review political conditions in Illinois, explain the motives Clay of Georgia in the course of the debate of some of the people who are attacking on the naval appropriation bill estimated him and conclude by expressing a desire that the ships should each cost $16,000,000.

Senator Hale of Maine, who for many years in connection with his election to the ships should each cost $16,000,000.

That the Senate make the fullest possible in connection with his election to the connection with his election with his election to the connection with his election with his election to the connection with his election to the connection with his election with his Senate This programme may be varied somewhat, but his closest friends understand that the Illinois Senator has about concluded that he owes it to himself and his State and to his colleagues in the Senate to answer the charges and invite that the cost of the proposed battleships would not be more than $11,500,000 each. He based his estimate on information in the hotel and it is said he is at work furnished by the General Board of the preparing a speech or statement in reply to charges against him. The Senator has asked newspaper representatives to ex-cuse him from making any statement > it is added, to turn aside from his financia undertakings until these were fairly under way. That having been accom-plished, the Senator collected all the availhed, the Senator collected all the avail-material relating to the charges and political friends and determine

LIVE STOCK TRANSPORTATION.

Dispute Between Railroads and Shippers

Settled by Agricultural Department. WASHINGTON, May 23.- A controversy has arisen between some of the railroads and large live stock shippers in regard to the space in the cars which must be and to another so as to make unloading for unnecessary and still comply with the twenty-eight hour law. This law provides in conclusion Cragen offered himself that when the animals are carried in cars in which they can and do have proper investigation, at the same time waiving in which they can and do have proper water, space and opportunity to they shall not be required to be mloaded. The Department of Agricul-ure has been appealed to by both railroads and shippers, and to-day the position of the Department is tentatively cars are not loaded beyond the dimum weight fixed by the tariffs.

Department will not for the present raise the question as to whether sufficient space is provided for the animals to rest, but railroads which load beyond the minimum and do not unload for rest will take their chances of prosecution

It is the intention of the Department to institute a number of test cases and secure rulings from the Federal courts as to what space must be afforded. It is claimed by the Department that this is the only course open, since no power is given the Secretary of Agriculture by the law to make rulings and regulations re-garding space to be afforded in cars.

cases where live stock is not unicaded en route into properly equipped pens for rest, water and feeding the cars must be provided with facilities for

BUCKET SHOP CASES.

Columbia Grand Jury

rmament?" suggested the Senator from Washington, May 23. The Grand Jury of the District of Columbia to-day re-"I believe we are in a better position turned additional indictments following to urge disarmament," was the reply the investigation which the Department of Senator Lodge. "I am opposed to of Justice has been making into bucket reduction of armanent independent of shops in New York, Philadelphia, Balti-

The indictments returned to-day are senator Dolliver expressed the opinion that our moral influence on the nations of the world is somewhat paralyzed as the result of our activities for war preparations while urging international disments, it is understood, are to insure the trial of those named taking place in the district of Columbia. The men will be arrested at once.

gunboat Yorktown at San Francisco. the torpedo boat Reid at Boston, the We talk world peace in one breath and in cruiser Dixie and the torpedo boats Lamson and Preston at Provincetown, and the gunboats Wilmington and Callao

Senator Burton of Ohio also deprecated at Hongkong.

The collier Saturn has sailed from San The collier Saturn has sailed from San the hattleship. the demand for more battleships. "The steel manufacturers and the owners of suppards are the most enthusiastic advocates of upbuilding a navy," said Senator Gates of upbuilding a navy, "said Senator More effective than talk of collier Vestal from Rockland for Province-

Nominations by the President

WASHINGTON, May 23.-President Taft sent to the Senate to-day the following nominations: To be Collector of Internal Revenue iment in favor of the conflict.

know of my own knowledge, consect senator Depew, "that Spain was life to negotiate with America to avoid that that Government was the conflict of Kentucky; to be United States Marshal for the Western District of Kentucky, George W. Long of Kentucky. To be Surveyor-General of Colorado, Timothy O'Connor of Boulder, Col.

Army and Navy Orders.

WASHINGTON, May 23.—These army orders were issued to-day : Issued to-day.

First Lieut, John S. Lambie, Jr., Medical Corps.
from Philippines division to San Francisco.
Capt. Daniel W. Arnold, Quartermaster, from San Francisco to St. Paul., relieving Col. J. Eatcourt Sawyer, Assistant Quartermaster General.

These navy orders were issued: Rear Admiral W. W. Kimbali, from Navy De-partment. Washington, to home. Midshipman H. E. Weite, when discharged from treatment at Naval Hospital, New York, to the

The Wall Street "Evening Sun." Scheduly believed that evicen would put to an end two countries. The views of the Prime cruled by Queen Victoria who wore always friends test. The closing quotations to the close of the market. The closing quotations to the close of the market. The closing quotations to the close of the market. The closing quotations is near is the general including the "bid and asked" prices, with additional news matter, are contained also to-day, but counsel were in conference all the stack and bond quotations to the close to the close of the market. The closing quotations belief here. The case was set for trial to-day, but counsel were in conference all the financial news and the stack and bond quotations to the close to the The Wall Street edition of THE EVENENG war would have come a the night edition of Tun Evanua Son. day.

JUST CONDENSED YOUCHERS

REPLY TO CHARGE OF STAMP GRAFT IN QUEENS.

-Busy Time for McNally Before the Grand Jury-Cragen Asks to Be Heard

One of the most exciting and prolonged secions ever held by a Queens county Grand Jury took place in the court house in Long Island City yesterday, when the present Grand Jury of that county, who are investigating the charges of official corruption unearthed by Commissione: Fosdick against officials in the Borough of Queens, took up the inquiry into the charges that vouchers for postage stamps used in the office of the Borough President had been raised from $5 to $50, by which the city was defrauded out of more than $2.000

Starting at 10 o'clock in the morning the session lasted until after 8 o'clock last Louis J. McNally, a junior clerk in the office of the Borough President. who it is alleged had charge of the postage stamp vouchers, was taken back and forth from the Grand Jury room several times during the session. fore the Grand Jury he was kept in a small room in the District Attorney's apartments in the court house. At times during his frequent examinations his voice could be heard out in the corridor of the court house the Borough President up to the first of the new year, when he took his sect as a Magistrate, nervously paced the court corridors outside. He appeared before Justice Garretson in the Queens county Supreme Court with his counsel, Clarence Edwards, where Judge Cragen petitioned the Court to direct the Grand Jury to call him as a witness. In a sworn petition presented to the Court, Fosdick's report, he declared that the charge of fraud in the matter of the pur-chase of the postage stamp supplies was Continuing, the petition set forth that the purchase of the stamps was entrusted to Louis J. McNally. "It had been his custom," the petition read, "when he had obtained ten receipts for $5 each to alter one of them to show the amount of ten and send that in as a mere memo or ten and send that in as a mere memo-randum, casting evide or destroying the other nine; and that your petitioner verily believes that said explanation is true; that said McNelly had no reason for making such alteration except for convenience in reducing the bulk of paper and in making the amounts received im for stamps correspond in amounts with such memor afforded animals in transit from one State and that he was entirely innocent of any criminal intent and actually expended for the proper purpose the amounts received by him aforesaid."

all privileges and rights because of ex-emption from being required to give evi-dence against himself.

To the petition was appended an affi-davit made by Louis J. McNally in which swore that he was the person men-ned in the affidavit of John M. Cragen and the statements made concerning him in that affidavit are true. Continuing, McNally's affidavit reads: "I actually paid for the stamps used in the office of the President of the Borough of Queens the full amounts shown in the memoranda made by me by changing postmaster's receipts from $5 to $50 In each instance I made such change I had ten re-for $5 each and cast aside or destroyed the other nine and the latter were never used by me for any purrose his rights and asked to be called as a wit-ness before the Grand Jury.

In passing upon the petition Justice Garretson said that it was not for the Court direct the Grand Jury in the matter.

Then began the session of the Grand Jury which lasted until after 8 o'clock last night. Judge Cragen remained until they took a recess until to-morrow, but was not called as a witness. But there tervening time. Miss Matilda Ryan, who has charge the postage stamp sales in the Long Island City post office, together with Postmaster George Ripperger, who was there with the books of the office, and Dennis J. Mc-Aneny and Francis X. Hussey, clerks in the post office were among the witnesses.

In addition to young McNally, among the witnesses from the Borough Hall were David W. Murphy, chief bookkeeper in the president's office, and James Rourke, a clerk in the Borough Hall. Toward evening John Hipple of 154 oung street, Long Island City, a clerk the Borough Hall, was also wanted as witness. Mr. Hipple sent word that his brother, Joseph Hippie sent word that his brother, Joseph Hippie, was buried yester-day and he was too ill to attend. Dr. C. N. Platt, the county physician, was sum-moned, and accompanied by Detective George A. Bolton of the District Attorney's office. witness. office they went together in an automo-bile to Mr. Hipple's house, where he was taken from his bed and brought to the Movements of Naval Vessels.

Washington, May 23.—The tug Rocket has arrived at Norfolk, the battleship Indiana at Delaware Breakwater, the gunboat Yorktown at San Francisco, the torpedo boat Reid at Boston, the

as his examination was resumed.
When the Grand Jury finished its session When the Grand Jury Innshed its session and the jurors filed out of the building nothing could be learned concerning what action had been taken. It is not known whether they voted to find indictments or not. Judge Cragen remained until the last, but no information was to be obtained. It is probable that the result of the inquiry will not be known until the Grand Jury meet again tomorrow morning. morrow morning.

NO LIGHT ON FLATBUSH MURDER Victim's Body.

An autopsy was performed yesterday An autopsy was performed yesterday ings will be begun or where such action on the body of the Italian who was found murdered on Sunday night in the Paerde.

It is the belief of officials here that murdered on Sunday night in the Paerde. gat woods in Flatbush. The physicians gat woods in Flatbush. The physicians reported to the Coron or that they had found no bullet wounds. Laborers living in a shanty near by had heard three shots early Sunday night and the Italian whom Detective Tony Vachris arrested at the edge of the woods carried a revolver with three empty shells and four unexploded cartridges.

The detectives searched for hours yesterday with the idea that there was another body hidden away in the woods somewhere but didn't find it and last night were ready to give up that end somewhere but didn't had hast night were ready to give up that end of the case. A number of Italians were taken to the morgue during the day to look at the body of the murdered man, but all said they never had seen him before. Vachris said last night that the whole case was waiting for the identifica-tion of the dead man.

tion of the dead man. Giovanni Ciparelli , the man who was Oll Suit Compromise Expected.

WON'T SIGN CALL FOR CAUCUS.

Twelve Republican Insurgents Opp Postal Savings Bank Bill WASHINGTON, May 23.- Twelve Republican insurgents refused to sign the call for the party caucus which is to be held nehed the Figures of Ten Vouchers All Wednesday night to take action on the The en one to save Time and Trouble postal savings bank bill. Among those who withheld their signatures from the call was Representative Norris, the Nebraska Republican who led the fight against the Cannon organization in March.

The indications are that unless a comomise is effected on the postal savings ank bill in caucus it will fall by the wayside. Representative Weeks of Massa-chusetts, chairman of the House Commit-tee on Post Offices and Post Roads, ex-presses confidence that the caucus will such an agreement that will have the apport of the majority of the Republicans. The bill will be open to amendment in caucus and consideration given to a proposal that it be considered in the House under a rule.

The provision of the bill in controversy is that relating to the disposition of funds deposited in postal savings banks. The bill provides that 5 per cent. of such deposits shall be held as a reserve fund, that 47% per cent, shall be invested in Government bonds and that 47% per Government bonds and that secent, shall be retained in the com nt bonds and that 471/2 per which it is deposited, except that President may in his discretion authorize the investme ent of such money in Government bonds and other approved Insurgents insist that a mandatory provision shall be placed in the bill in the matter of funds to be retained in the commenter of the state of the object to the discretionary power vested in the President in this regard. They of the court house.

During the day Municipal Magistrate, by the Borough President up to the first of the new year, when he took his seat as a Magistrate, nervously proed the court. tically all the moneys deposited in postal savings banks It is imperative for the Republicans to effect a compromise on this point at Wednesday's caucus. A considerable number of Democrats are opposed to this proposition and will vote against it. In order to pass the Administration bill it is necessary for the Republican majority to hold practically every one of its members in

COWIE WILL SUCCEED ROGERS. Appointment as Paymaster-General

of the Navy Announced. WASHINGTON, May 23.-Pay Director Thomas J. Cowie, pay officer and general storekeeper at the Naval Academy, will be appointed Paymaster-General of the navy within a few weeks, succeeding Paymaster-General Fustace B. Rogers, who will tender his resignation because of administrative differences with Secretary of the Navy Meyer. Mr. Rogers will be placed on the retired list on his wn application after thirty years service.

The appointment of Mr. Cowie was anounced at the Navy Department to-day following a conference between President Taft and Secretary Meyer. Mr. Cowie's nomination as Faymaster-General and the of the bureau of supplies and ac-counts will not be sent to the Senate, however, for several days, pending the passage of the naval appropriation bill which contains a provision increasing the pay of bureau chiefs and granting them the right of retirement as Rear

Admirals. In submitting his request for voluntary Meyer not to take action until the bill is passed. Mr. Rogers will obtain an inout $1,500 in his annual pay Meyer has granted this request and wil Mr. Meyer has grant a this request and will not take any action until the law is passed. The provision increasing the pay of the bureau chiefs and granting them the right of retirement as Bear Admirals was inserted in the bill in the Senate Committee by Senator Hale

Maine former chairman of the committee. Pay Director Cowie has been on duty at the Naval Academy since June 31. 1905. He was highly recommended the appointment by Capt. John M. Bow-yer, superintendent of the academy. He was also indorsed by many prominent members of Congress. He entered the but he accepted the petition, and summoning the Grand Jury before him turned the petition over to them, when they again of Iowa. He was the representative of the navy years ago in obtaining army and navy

SHIP SUBSIDY SCANDAL.

were plenty of other witnesses to fill in the | Wm. P. Hackney Says His Charge Against proved to be a frank witness. In a pamphlet written by him some time ago Mr. Hackney characterized every man in the United States who was opposed to the ship subsidy legislation as "an ignorent ass and unprincipled demagogue or the paid hireling of baleful influences." Hackney wrote this pamphlet and sent to members of Congress and news papers "to jerk them loose and set them thinking," according to his testimony before the committee to-day. Mr. Hackney had also charged that Congress had been influenced against shipping legis lation through the medium of wine suppers. This allegation he said to-day was based on belief and not on knowledge. Justus Ruperti and William Boyd of New York, representing foreign shipping interests at that port, disclaimed any knowledge of activities in opposition to the passage of the ship subsidy bill. Just before the committee adjourned to-day Representative Olcott of New York, its chairman, announced that the next hearing will be held on June I.

Benartment of Justice Getting Evidence on Which to Base Prosecutions.

WASHINGTON, May 23. The Department of Justice is going after the lumber trust. It became known here to-day that for several months agents of the Department have been investigating an alleged combination among lumbermen Autopsy Discloses No Bullet Wounds in with the idea of beginning prosecution against it for violation of the Sherman anti-trust act. Just how soon proceed-practically every concern of consequence in the country is interested in the combination, and it is suspected that those in it fix the price of lumber and even go so far as to dictate to the several members to whom they shall sell.

The Department is making the investi-

The Department is making the investigation on the idea that prices are artificially maintained, just as they think they are kept up by the beef trust and other alleged combinations which deal in foodstuffs.

KIDNAPPER SENTENCED. Two More to He Tried for Stealing incubater Baby.

HOLTON, Kan., May 23.-Freeman H. Tillotson, convicted here last week for participating in the kidnapping of Marian was determined to have and and he believed the dot have it out. He devolutionary spirit prepointed out that the dot never pointed never pointed out that the dot never pointed out the dot never pointed out that the dot never pointed out the dot never pointed out the dot never poi Bleakley, the St. Louis fair "incubator terminate term in prison by Judge Rains to-day. Judge Rains overruled a motion with pay. It will affect about 5,000 men for a new trial but released Tillotson on his continuing bond for ninety days pending an appeal to the Kansas Supreme Ambassador Bryce to Stay.

25 3 family medicine everywhere.

26 3 family medicine everywhere.

27 18 28 3 family medicine everywhere.

28 3 family medicine everywhere.

28 3 family medicine everywhere.

29 20 3 family medicine everywhere.

29 3 family medicine everywhere.

20 3 family medicine everywhere.

20 4 6 favire, write Medical Branchester. New York, stating your carried on the pay rolls as per diem men.

MAYOR SIGNS THE "JAG LAW" JUMPED IN FRONT OF TRAIN.

THIS BOARD OF ESTIMATE WON'T PUT IT INTO FORCE.

suits Would Justify the Expense, but He Gives the Good Men and Women Behind the Bill the Benefit of the Boubt.

Mayor Gaynor approved yesterday of the bill passed by the Legislature which permits the Board of Estimate to establish a commission for dealing with inebriates and a hospital and an industrial colony to be used by the commission to break topers of the habit of sousing. Although the Mayor signed the measure yesterday it is certain that the present Board of Estimate will not furnish the money for the scheme. The Mayor said in his memorandum:

This bill makes it optional with the Board of Estimate and Apportionment whether i shall incur the expense of establishing and maintaining an institution for the detention and disciplining of inebriates.

It is certain that drunkenness has very much decreased during the last thirty years or more. There used to be five topers for one that you see now. This is due to several causes. The foremost is the education and elevation morally of our people through The next is the improvement in method particular influence which has been exerted against intemperance by organized effort in the churches and elsewhere, and by grea temperance leaders, such as Father Mathewand John B. Gough. There are thousand of these Father Mathew societies all over he United States doing incalculable good.

Finally the substitution of light beers for strong drinks has done much to do away with drunkenness. It might also be men-tioned that the general introduction of machinery, and especially electricity, has one much to require total abstinence from intoxicating drinks, for only sober and ert men are fit for these employments. I feel certain that these influences at loing vastly more than this statute could to to decrease the number of inebriates doubt if this bill should it become a law will do much to decrease the number. view it more as furnishing a humane and rational manner of restraining and treating nebriates, rather than let shem go from bad to worse, and finally be sent to prison for

It has back of it good men and women and I should be reluctant to refuse to accept it on behalf of the city. I accept it, leaving t to the Board of Estimate and Apportion ment to say whether the great which the carrying of it out would entail on the city should be incurred; that is to say whether it will be worth the while to incur it If the Board of Estimate should vote for a board of inebriety these things pro-ceed to happen to "a male person ar rested for intoxication" If he hasn't been arrested before for a year for the same offence he may be released on his own request. If he has, that fact will be reported to the cour that deals with the case. If he is adjudge an inebriate he may, at his own instance If he is adjudged or a relative's, or on the application of the Commissioner of Charities or the trustees of Bellevue, and on the certififleate of two examiners in lunacy, committed to the custody of the Board Inebriety for from one to three years the board may parole him if it deems wis or keep him in its industrial colony and him pay his keep if he has got y. The court may of its own mo ommit the culprit to the custody of the poard for divers terms, may fine himay release him on conditions for more than a year and commit him if violates them once, and must commit him if he violates them twice; or may send him to the workhouse for three years, or impose any other penalty already prescribed by law. Female persons are ned in the bill.

MAYOR CALLS A COUNCIL. Means to Get His Department Heads Together Once a Month.

Mayor Gaynor sept for all the heads of his departments vesterday and had about an hour's talk with frem. He would not say anything regarding the sage of the increase of pay bill for the explained that when he first went into will be a free man all summer Wm. P. Hackney Says His Charge Against Congress Was Based on Bellet Only.

Washington, May 23.—William P.
Hackney of Winfield. Kan., who appeared to-day before the House committee inquiring into the ship subsidy scandal, proved to be a frank witness. In a pammonth, Stenographic minutes were taken month to make and receive suggestions tending to better the government of the city. The Mayor said yesterday that since the beginning of the year dental to the beginning of a new administration that he had been unable to carry out the plan until yesterday. Hereafter his cabinet will meet regularly every month. Stenographic minutes were taken month to make and receive suggestions tending to better the government of the city. The Mayor said yesterday that since the beginning of the year dental to the beginning of a new administration that he had been so busy with matters incident to the beginning of the year dental to the beginning of a new administration that he had been so busy with matters incidental to the beginning of a new administration. publication of the minutes.

The Mayor said that the rumors that

Fire Commissioner Waldo and Chief Croker were not working in harmony had no

TO CARRY CATSKILL WATER. Experts Report in Payor of High Pressure Tunnels in the City.

The plan of the Board of Water Supply to distribute the water from the new Catskill source in the various boroughs by means of high pressure tunnels has been approved by the committee of expert engineers appointed by the Board of Estimate to pass on the scheme. The committee, which consists of Clemens Herschel, Francis L. Pruyn and J. Ednext hearing will be held on June 1. mund Woodman, has reported that the proposed tunnel system would cost only 601NG AFTER LUMBER TRUST. $28,000,000 to build, as against the $47,-000,000 which it has been estimated it would cost to build a system of pipe lines.

would cost to build a system of pipe lines. The report says:

"Whether viewed from the point of first cost, maintenance or future cost our opinion is that the city of New York will do well to direct the immediate construction of the proposed Manhattan pressure tunnel for purposes of distributing the Catskill water supply in the five boroughs." boroughs

A committee of the Board of Estimate will hold a public hearing on the matter in the City Hall on May 31 at 8 P. M.

PUBLIC BATHING PAVILION Aldermen's Finance Committee to Report

Pavorably on Coney Island Project. for the establishment of a public bathing for the establishment of a public banning pavilion at Coney Island decided to report favorably on the measure at to-day a meeting of the board. It is estimated that the cost of the building would be about

Two Weeks Vacation for City Laborers. Mayor Gaynor approved yesterday of the bill granting day laborers employed scribed by doctors and recognized

Many Persons Witness Spicigle's Leap in

Subway Station. Several dozen persons, of whom the greater number were women, saw yesterday afternoon shortly after 3 o'clock Harry Maher of 233 Court street, Brooklyn. jump on to the tracks in front of a Manhattan bound West Farms subway train that was entering the Borough Hall station. Before Motorman John Smith could stop the motor car and the front trucks of the next had passed over the man. When Maher was extricated it was found that his right leg and left hand had been crushed. He was hurried to the Brooklyn Hospital by Ambulance Surgeon Isquith and placed on the operating table, where it was found that he was suffering also from internal injuries. He died before the train with the emergency brakes

Maher was 25 years old. He was a sugar sampler. He was married three years ago and had a child one year old. He ago and had a child one year out. He borrowed $1 yesterday morning, it is said, from a shoemaker who has a shop in the building where Maher lives.

According to witnesses, Maher was in company with a sailor when he entered the submorn station, strolled to the others.

the subway station, strolled to the edge of the platform and waited coolly for a train. His only words after being pulled out were a request for a priest. The Rev. Father Peter Donohue of St. John's Pro-Cathedral was summoned and he rode to the hospital in the ambulance with the patient. with the patient.

FOOLED THE CHARITY AGENTS. Old Woman Posed as a Pauper, but Lent Money to Her Benefactors

SAN FRANCISCO, May 23.-A curious ontest has arisen over the estate of the late Susannah A. Moore, a charity patient of several church associations, who died in a wretched hovel on December 9, 1908, but was found to have a fortune of $70,000 in bank deposits and loans.

Attorney O'Toole was appointed by the court to look after the estate, and after nine months work he has been unable to unravel the tangle. A supposed daugh-ter, Margaret Dean of Idaho, has laid claim to the estate, but O'Toole as well as John G. Dwyer, an attorney of Hart-ford, Conn., declares that she is an im-postor. They say the only legal heirs are two neices, Miss Margaret Kane and Miss Mary Hunter of New York. Old Mrs. Moore fooled all the charity old Mrs. Moore fooled all the charity agents here. She posed as a pauper, yet loaned $10,000 to one of the churches that assisted her. She also owned some valuable real estate. A will has been presented which Dwyer says is bogus. He represents the two New York neices.

HOFFSTOT'S APPEAL

ounsel for Pennsylvenia File the Record With the U. S. Supreme Court.

WASHINGTON, May 23. Papers were from our stock. filed in the Supreme Court this afternoon in one of the most important of the Pittsburg graft cases, that of Frank M. Hoffstot, president of the German National Bank of Pittsburg and of the Pressed Steel Car Company. The question of whether Hoffstot is taken back to Pittsburg from New York immediately for trial or whether he remains out on bail through the summer depends on whether the Supreme Court passes on the appeal before it adjourns CHILD LEADS A MAN CHASE. next Tuesday, May 31.

Hoffstot contends that he is a citizen of New York and that he was out of Pennsylvanie when the crime for which he sylvania when the crime for which he was indicted was committed. He is charged with bribing members of the Pitzsburg Council to get them to deposit city money in his bank. Requisition was made on the Governor of New York by Pennsylvania and was granted. Hoffstot was arrested applianced in custody of a was arrested and placed in custody of a job off her hands, detective named Flood. His counsel then sought a writ of habeas corpus from Judge Holt of New York. Judge Holt denied it and then Hoffstot's counsel old, of 496 Berger appealed to the Supremed Value of the Court to-day by the counsel for the The two girls backed into the hallway Pennsylvania authorities, who are anxious of the tenement where the Hook girls Pennsylvania authorities, who are anxious to hurry the case along, get Judge Holt's lives and the man followed. decision sustained and then secure the custody of Hoffstot and try him. For this reason they want the court to act on the matter before next Tuesday, the list and ran out of the hallway and up Bergen day before the summer recess. Other-avenue toward 148th street. While her subjects discussed, but he wise Hoffstot, who is out on bond of $16,000 to-day for the hiring of thirty-seven to-day for the hiring of thirty-seven additional employees at the New York Custom House. Two inspectors will be employed under the Surveryor of the employed under the Surveryor of the Port. Naval Officer Kraacke is to have five and Collector Loeb will add twenty-five to his force. Collector Loeb gets also the man said he was Zachariah Fonds, and the collector Loeb gets also the man said he was Zachariah Fonds, and the collector Loeb gets also the man said he was Zachariah Fonds, and the collector Loeb gets also took up the interruption. Hook took up the chase and caught his man. Hook was manling his quarry and there was a crowd ready to take up the chase and caught his man. Hook was manling his quarry and there was a crowd ready to take up the chase and caught his man.

Wild's Bungalows

MEMORINA DE LOS LA LA LA CARACTERIA

The durability of the Bungalow Rug gives it a unique place in the summer home.

-It's splendid for the hall-or any room-

Thick, yielding, wool texture in solid colors with plain band borders.

-Easily kept clean.

9. x12.

-May be used on both sides. 2.3x 4.6 $3.50 3. x 6. 6.00 9.50 4. x 7. 18.00 6. x 9. 7.6x10.6 26.50

Or made to order any size at $3.00 a sq. yd.

36.00

Our booklet, "Rugs for Summer Homes," will interest you.

OLONIAL designs in mahogany reflect the utmost refinement in the large library, directors' room or office. The numerous styles that we show may be matched with chairs, secretaries and bookcases Schmitt Brothers, Pureflure Makers. 40 East 23d.

Also Antiques and Reproductions at 343 & 345 MADISON AVE.

A ten-year-old girl chased a man who she said had attacked her in a doorway for a block and a half in The Bronz last night and gave up the chase only when her father happened along and took the

The child is Evelyn Hook of 494 Bergen evenue. With Alice Blackmoor, 6 years old, of 496 Bergen avenue, she was playappealed to the Supreme Court. ing in front of the two houses when a The record was filed with the Supreme man came along and began petting her.

companion stood screaming on the side-walk Evelyn Hook ran after the man. the Mayor's office he had planned to have a meeting with his department heads at least once a month to make and receive suggestions tending to better the government of the city. The Mayor said yesterday that since the beginning of the year he had been so busy with matters inci.

This additional force has been authorized because of increasing business at the Custom House. There are some vacancies in the Collector's office, but most of the positions filled are newly court this morning to appear against

Gained Fifteen Pounds

"Am in better condition physically than I have been for years. My stomach, kidneys and liver are in fine shape," says Mr. William A. Burgess. "While serving in the U. S.

Army, 1898 to 1901, I contracted stomach and kidney trouble, from which I have suffered ever since, and for which I receive a pension. I tried many remedies, but none. gave any noteworthy effect. About three months ago I began using Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey as a medicine. I have used three bottles and have gained fifteen pounds since I began using it. I am still using it and I do not think there is any medicine made that is equal

MR. WILLIAM A. BURGESS. to it. My stomach, liver and kidneys are in better order than they have The finance committee of the Board been for years, and if these three organs of the body are kept in order of Aldermen after holding a public hear- one will have few doctor bills. I cheerfully recommend Duffy's Pure ing yesterday on the resolution providing Malt Whiskey as a tonic, a stimulant and renovator of the whole system."-WILLIAM A. BURGESS, P. O. box 575, Danville, Ill.

Although most of those who spoke at the hearing were in favor of the scheme it was contended by the opponents that there was no need for such a building and that it would mean the closing up of a park site which was now used for opponents that there was no need for such a building and that it would mean the closing up of a park site which was now used for convalencement children. Whickey the health and Malt Whiskey the health and strength-giving properties that are so necessary to them. It is pre-to-day. Judge Rains overruled a motion for a new trial but released Tillotson on his continuing bond for ninety days pending an appeal to the Kansas Supreme Court.

Mrs. James G. Barclay of Moline. Ill., foster mother of the child, for whom the Bleakley girl was kidnapped and J. N. Geriry, who is alleged to have assisted in the kidnapping, remain to be tried. Mrs. Charlotte Bleakley of Topeka is the mother of the baby.

Ambassader Bryce to Stay.

Wassington, May 23.—The British Embassy here authorized a denial to-day of the report that the Right Hou. James Bryce, the British Embassy here authorized a denial to-day of the report that the Right Hou. James Bryce, the British Ambassandor to the United States, had written to the British Foreign Office asking to be recalled from this city.

